

Janae Gilbert

...is a proud mother to a toddler boy and a visionary entrepreneur originally from Connecticut, now based in Atlanta since 2021. With a natural eye for marketing and design, Janae has channeled her creativity into launching multiple ventures, including a custom clothing line and Taylin's Treasures—a children's brand inspired by her son. Her work spans children's books, coloring books, and more, all rooted in a mission to uplift and inspire the next generation.

As the oldest daughter and second-born of eleven (11) siblings, Janae has long embraced the role of a mentor and role model, especially to her younger sisters. Her life experiences have fueled a deep passion for youth empowerment, and she is committed to using her story to spark growth and confidence in others. As a member of WeSource, she is excited to bring her leadership, creativity, and heart for community to the forefront.
